

FEELING IS SHARP OVER THE ELECTION RESULTS

Tilman Announces That He'll Support Repeal, But Bitterly Criticizes President Wilson for Springing the Question.

OLLIE JAMES HAMMERS ATTITUDE OF O'GORMAN

Although a Night Session Was Held, Senate Did Not Reach Vote—Final Action May Come Today.

Washington, June 9.—The senate today marched steadily forward toward final action on the tolls exemption repeal bill, but leaders tonight were unwilling to predict the day when a vote would be taken.

Even with a night session tonight, there was no certainty of a vote on the first proposition to be disposed of, the so-called Simmons-Norris amendment qualifying terms of the bill. Senator Borah, an anti-repeal leader, predicted that this amendment alone would be debated four or five hours. Action within the next day or two, however, hardly can be avoided unless there are unexpected developments or an untimely filibuster.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, today made an unusual speech criticizing the president in vigorous terms for bringing the tolls issue before the country at this time and endeavoring to make the democratic party in congressional elections next fall.

Tillman criticized Wilson as would vote for repeal only because he felt his state party convention had freed him from the tolls issue in the Baltimore platform.

"I stagger at my common sense, and I have been unable to understand how he has projected the fight on his party at this time," he said.

"It is of great importance to the democratic party to control the house at the next election, and I believe the president should have kept quiet until that election was over."

This speech came at the close of a day devoted to debate on the tolls bill. "Until this issue was pressed to the front, the course of the country was onward and upward," Senator Tillman declared.

"There is a great deal of talk of more importance that the democratic ought to do, that I must say, in my opinion, it is a great deal of talk. The part of the president. The democratic party is not the only party in the United States, it is split into contending factions."

Trusts at Roosevelt.
The senator recalled that Theodore Roosevelt, "the great advertiser," had come home "delighted." Then he recalled that when the O'Gorman anti-repeal leader, suggesting that in the next campaign the New York senator would make a campaign of it in explaining why two planks so important as the tolls and the tariff subsidy planks were placed into the Baltimore platform.

Senator Tillman said the tolls fight had made it very unhappy for him. He recalled that when the O'Gorman anti-repeal leader, suggesting that in the next campaign the New York senator would make a campaign of it in explaining why two planks so important as the tolls and the tariff subsidy planks were placed into the Baltimore platform.

"I would feel very unhappy if Mr. La Follette would prescribe physics for some which I am not willing to do," he said. "The senator," he explained, however, "is not the only one who is not a convert to his party and has adopted a different view."

Senator Root is Attacked.
Senator Root, of Michigan, criticized the senator from New York for his opposition and declared the senator had been "delivered" by the La Follette treaty, which was put to a vote by the senate.

With the senator from New York were here, so that I might ask him if he approved of the La Follette treaty. Senator Smith, who had just returned from the chamber and Senator Smith, who had just returned from the chamber and Senator Smith, who had just returned from the chamber.

"I did approve of it, because it was not affected by the La Follette treaty," he said. "I did not see any opportunity for military protection of the canal," he said. "I did not see any opportunity for military protection of the canal," he said.

Senator Root added that while he was a member of the cabinet at the time the treaty was submitted to the senate, he had no knowledge of the treaty until it was sent to the senate. Senator Smith stated that the treaty was approved by the senate.

Senator O'Gorman explained that on one occasion he had been asked by a senator when the question came up and that he had said that he was not a member of the cabinet. Atlanta Experiences Hottest Day of Year—Mercury Goes Up to 97 Degrees. More Hot Weather Today.

While the sun beat pitilessly down upon the city Monday and yesterday, there were seven victims of heat prostration. This number was officially recorded at Grady hospital, to which one patient was removed. There were doubtless more that went by unrecorded.

This is a record for heat prostrations in the state. The heat likewise established a record for the present season. At 7 o'clock Tuesday morning the thermometer climbed above 90 degrees. At noon it reached 97 degrees, and in the early forenoon, an altitude of 97 was attained.

The mercury was bubbling around 97 and 98 when a busy little breeze tumbled in from the west and gave a slight relief about 4 o'clock. Clouds hurried through the sky and hopes were felt for rain, which fell in refreshing showers at 6 o'clock.

NO HUERTA AGENT TO BE TOLERATED BY UNITED STATES

Mediators Strike Snag in Regard to the Method of Naming the Proposed New Provisional President.

U. S. Will Not Allow Him to Name His Temporary Successor—Rebels to Have Large Share in New Provisional Government.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 9.—The United States is unwilling to extend recognition to a new provisional president of Mexico according to the method prescribed by the Mexican delegates, which is that General Huerta would appoint a minister of foreign affairs who would be agreed on here to lead the new government.

The contents that if General Huerta is permitted to name the foreign minister, the country of succession would be elevated to the presidency, even though the selection be made here, such an act would be construed as recognition of the Huerta government.

On this issue the mediating plenipotentiaries have failed to reach agreement late today.

More than two hours the mediators and American delegates argued in vain and it was apparent when the conference ended that the method had been considered a matter of detail suddenly had developed a snag. The Mexican delegates had not discussed the point at any length with the mediators when the latter took it up with the United States.

South American diplomats argued strongly from the Mexican viewpoint, but the United States refused to believe that the Mexican delegates would not insist on this arrangement if they were to be successful.

One Mexican delegate insisted that the Mexican government could not transition as a technicality which could be dispensed with if the American government found it impossible to agree to the method suggested by the Mexican delegates.

The mediators continued with negotiations, but the form of the provisional constitution should be preserved. The American delegates are understood to have been agreed on the provisional constitution, but the Mexican delegates certainly would not agree to a plan of transition which legalized the cabinet and the American government, it was declared, could not extend what would be tantamount to recognition if Huerta actually appointed a new government.

Possibility of Compromise.
There is a possibility that a compromise might be reached. The provisional constitution, minister of foreign affairs, Dr. Madero, could be appointed to the cabinet and the American government, it was declared, could not extend what would be tantamount to recognition if Huerta actually appointed a new government.

Although the plans will conflict with the plans of the local committee it is believed that the American delegates will be able to reach an agreement.

tutional representation was forgotten. The answer from General Carranza to the last communication of the mediators is not expected materially to alter the mediation situation, as it is authoritative knowledge that no armistice will be declared by the constitutionalists—a condition on which the mediators are insistent, and without which the constitutionalists cannot hope for admission.

Rebels in New Government.
The mediators believe the claims of the constitutionalists for participation in the provisional government can be taken care of in whatever final agreement is reached here, and that it matters little whether representatives of General Carranza appear at the conference. This made it easy for the opposing delegates to meet harmoniously. The American delegates maintain that certain concessions should be made by the mediators to allow Carranza to have his agents here.

In today's discussion of the form of provisional government the American delegates are understood to have told the mediators that, inasmuch as Carranza had been moving forward toward unadvised military conquest of Mexico City, it seemed essential that the constitutionalists be given ample share in the new government. The mediators are not averse to this, but are unwilling to transfer the Mexican government at one fell swoop to the constitutional party. They think that in the general elections which should follow shortly after the new provisional government was installed the Carranza faction very likely would emerge triumphantly. For the present, however, they think that General Huerta should be allowed to retire with dignity and order be compelled to turn over his power directly to the constitutionalists.

No immediate few United States Mexico will not be asked by the United States to pay war indemnity. The Huerta government is expected to be recouped for the heavy expense already made in an attempt to pacify Mexico was given to the Mexican delegates soon after the conference opened. This made it easy for the opposing delegates to meet harmoniously.

BELIEVED CARRANZA WILL BE REPRESENTED.
Washington, June 9.—Every indication in Washington today pointed to some form of constitutional participation in the Niagara Falls mediation conference, tending toward the settlement of international differences affecting the Huerta government as well as the internal troubles in Mexico. It was expected that the definite position of Carranza would be communicated to some of the constitutionalists here.

Some of the constitutionalists here in touch with their leader insisted tonight that Carranza would not consent to an armistice, but that he would agree to peace proposals as they relate to establishment of a provisional government pending a general election provided representation is given in the provisional government to the constitutionalists. Carranza refuse a cessation of hostilities, it seemed improbable here that his representatives would be received in the mediation conference.

Witness and Bryan Expected.
While the mediators and Mexican delegates here, the administration here, plans formulated by the Washington government President Woodrow Wilson, Secretary Bryan and John Lind, who reported the state department negotiations with Carranza's representatives here, conferred. Later Secretary Bryan declared that both the president and himself were hopeful of constitutional participation in ultimate plans for peace in Mexico.

It was learned that some features proposed by the administration here, which differed from the peace plan originally submitted by the mediators and the plans of the Huerta commission, related to treatment of the constitutionalists. Administration leaders believe a compromise might be reached which would be acceptable to Carranza. To be before the mediation conference to discuss peace proposals, though there much could be accomplished by the administration here, the Mexican situation and that tripartite participation in the mediation conference would follow with Huerta, Carranza and the United States representatives.

The Ammunition Question.
The subject of ammunition from the United States for the constitutionalists continued a matter of official concern. Cabinet deliberations resulted in an order from Secretary of Commerce Redden to the United States to furnish ammunition to the constitutionalists. Mr. Redden's statement to the Washington Constitutional leaders were that they were placed to learn there had been no intention of furnishing the ammunition of the Huerta-American steamship company. The ammunition was stored on $10,000 worth of ammunition collected by the United States. The War line Antilla from New York was her cargo of ammunition for Carranza. It was reported that the blockade of the port and his gunboats having returned toward Puerto Mexico, officials expressed the opinion that her cargo would not be interfered with. The idea suggested yesterday that Carranza might be induced to return to the United States, but the blockade of the port and his gunboats having returned toward Puerto Mexico, officials expressed the opinion that her cargo would not be interfered with.

GUNBOATS OF HUERTA VANISH FROM TAMISCO
Tampico, Mexico, June 8.—(By Way of Brownsville, Texas.)—The blockade of the port of Tampico, Mexico, was lifted today. The gunboats of the Huerta government, which had been blocking the port, were reported to have vanished from the scene. The blockade was lifted without having an opportunity to have any effect on the blockade.

GEORGIA WOMEN ARE IN EVIDENCE

Five to Address Federation of Women's Clubs—Suffrage Question Likely to Cause Warm Fight in the Convention.

By Mrs. Harvie Jordan.
Chicago, June 9.—(Special.)—Hosts of women are gathering in Chicago for the twelfth biennial convention of the general federation of women's clubs. There are twenty delegates from Georgia in attendance. Five speakers from the state will be represented on the program. Mrs. J. L. Fitzpatrick, state president, and Mrs. Bolling Jones, general federation secretary, will each speak at the convention. The suffrage question is likely to cause a warm fight in the convention.

Advocates of woman's suffrage are working in favor of the adoption of the constitution of the state by the convention of a resolution endorsing suffrage for women.
Suffragettes Claim Victory.
It is rumored that the suffrage leaders will be victorious in the convention. The equal suffrage element of the federation today claimed victory in a preliminary skirmish. The suffragettes took place in a secret meeting of the general council of the federation yesterday. The majority of those present expressed themselves in favor of the adoption of the constitution of the state by the convention of a resolution endorsing suffrage for women.

WOMEN WIN VICTORY IN LOUISIANA SENATE
Baton Rouge, La., June 9.—The bill providing for the submission of the constitution of Louisiana to a constitutional amendment permitting the admission of women to the senate was unanimously passed by the senate today. The bill was introduced by Senator J. B. McComb, and was passed by a vote of 17 to 10.

SUFFRAGETTES PLAN MARCH ON ASQUITH
London, June 9.—King George and Queen Mary enjoyed the brilliant state ball at Buckingham place tonight without interruption by suffragettes. There is every prospect of a renewal of the oft-repeated scenes at Westminster tomorrow.

First Revision in Years.
The express rates in Georgia had not been revised since 1892, and as a consequence they were extremely antiquated and inefficient. Great credit for the present revision is due to J. Prince Wheeler, the commission's rate expert, who, for the last three years, has devoted a large part of his time exclusively to this work. He has attended practically every hearing before the interstate commerce commission on the subject of express rates and has interviewed the state commissions and attended hearings in dozens of states. Of this and the rates used by other states, he prepared a comprehensive digest which largely guided the commission in preparing its order.

First Revision in Years.
The express rates in Georgia had not been revised since 1892, and as a consequence they were extremely antiquated and inefficient. Great credit for the present revision is due to J. Prince Wheeler, the commission's rate expert, who, for the last three years, has devoted a large part of his time exclusively to this work. He has attended practically every hearing before the interstate commerce commission on the subject of express rates and has interviewed the state commissions and attended hearings in dozens of states. Of this and the rates used by other states, he prepared a comprehensive digest which largely guided the commission in preparing its order.

"If It 'Didn't Pay' There Wouldn't Be Any 'Regular Users' of The Want Ad Columns

Think of the many advertisers who use space in The Constitution Want Ad columns just as regularly as the large department stores use display space!

They get results same as the merchants do—that's the reason they are "regular advertisers."

Especially is this true with Real Estate agencies. They make a practice of using the classified columns nearly every day. They are constantly looking for prospective buyers, and by this means get in touch with them.

CRACKERS SLIP

Poor Pitching and Errors Tossed Away Another Game; Vols Sprang Two Rallies

A Pretty Race.

THE RACE in the Southern league this season is developing daily into the most exciting and closely contested witnessed in the history of the league. This year we are only 41 points in difference of three and a half games between the first and sixth place teams. The results every day for a few days are likely to set the standing topsy-turvy.

Different Prospects.

THE CRACKERS have better prospects this season than they have for years. In 1912, we had won 27 games and lost 51. This morning the standings show us winning 23 and losing 31. Last year we were only 41 points behind Chattanooga, who is in first place. Last year we were only 41 points behind Chattanooga, who is in first place. We were eight and a half games behind Mobile. So there is no reason to lose heart.

Re-entrance.

HARRY WELCH, the Crackers' star pitcher, is back in the game again. The big chieftain is slugging the ball in old-time form again and he is going to be hard to beat from now until the end of the season. Jennings also re-entered the select circle Tuesday, giving the Crackers six men hitting .300 or better.

Hitting Fine.

THE GREAT attack that the Crackers have been making since the season began with the poor fielding and equally poor pitching that has been the bane of the Crackers has been the bane of the Crackers. The Crackers have been making a good deal of progress since the season began. The Crackers have been making a good deal of progress since the season began.

Must Be Up.

THE FIELDING must show a decided improvement in the next few days. The Crackers are excellent and the poor pitching can be attributed as much to the fielding as to the pitching. The Crackers have been making a good deal of progress since the season began. The Crackers have been making a good deal of progress since the season began.

Shake It Off.

New Hurler Soon.

WE'RE TIPPED off confidentially that the Crackers will have a new hurler here when they get back to Atlanta. Nashville, June 9.—(Special).—Five thousand frantic and delicious fans roared the Vols to victory over the Atlanta Crackers here this afternoon by the score of 5 to 2.

A great eighth and ninth-inning rally, when the apparently impossible feat was overcome, won the Crackers out of victory, and made it three straight from the house of Smith.

The Vols entered the eighth inning with the score standing 7 to 2 for the Crackers and Boland had been hampered from the ball by the terrific onslaught of the invading team wanted to win. They were out there fighting every inch all the way.

Mutt Williams, a lean, lanky right-hander, was going at top speed and was retiring the Vols with a machine-gun rapidity.

OGLETHORPE PARK vs. ANSLEY PARK

1914 vs. 1904

Prosperity vs. "Croakers"—Oglethorpe Park vs. Ansley Park

Oglethorpe Park is as directly in the line of development as Ansley Park was in 1904, and its increase in property values will be just as great.

Ten years from today Oglethorpe Park will have as many handsome homes in it as Ansley Park has today.

The Croakers will tell you differently, but watch my prediction. There are only two classes of citizens in Atlanta: THE ONES WHO LIVE ON THE NORTH SIDE and the ONES WHO WANT TO LIVE ON THE NORTH SIDE.

Visit Oglethorpe Park immediately, and you will be surprised at what you find there today. The streets are all graded and the lots are all staked. You can select anything from a three-quarter-acre building lot to a fifteen-acre chicken farm. Every lot will double in value within five years. You can buy these lots with your salary, or any way you please.

Have your own agent help you to select your lot, and take his judgment as to future values, if you are not willing to accept mine.

More homes have been built north of Peachtree Creek in the last twelve months than in the ten preceding years.

Peachtree road will be built up solid to Oglethorpe University within ten years.

Peachtree road frontage to the DeKalb county line is a good investment today at any price under $75 per front foot, and will double up in ten years.

The Peachtree Battlefield will be the handsomest and most popular National Park in America within the next ten years.

1914 vs. 1904

In 1904 the city limits ended at Sixth street.

In 1914 Ansley Park was a tangled mass of lots and farms, and paid less than $500 in taxes to Fulton county.

In 1904 Atlanta's population was $3,000.

In 1914 Atlanta's population was $3,000.

In 1904 Atlanta's bank clearings were $50,353,911.15.

In 1914 Atlanta's bank clearings were $158,022,302.15.

The postoffice receipts in 1904 were $41,830.36.

In 1904 Atlanta had only half a dozen skyscrapers.

In 1914 the assessed value of Atlanta real estate was $14,332,000.00.

In 1904 there was not a house in Druid Hills and only one good house on the Ponce de Leon avenue between the railroad and the county line.

In 1914 Ansley Park was assessed by the City of Atlanta at $2,240,000, and paid $20,000 in taxes to the city, and $20,000 to Fulton county.

The taxable value increased 11,000 per cent in eight years.

In 1914 Atlanta's population is 22,000—an increase of 25 per cent.

What will it be in the next ten years?

In 1914 Atlanta's bank clearings were $725,604,152.61.

The increase in 20 years of 1,094 per cent.

The regional bank makes Atlanta the south's financial center.

Postoffice receipts for 1914, $1,225,001.24.

Increase, 219 per cent.

From 1904 to 1914 investments in buildings alone amounted to $41,815,076.96.

For the past three years it has averaged over 1,000 new homes per annum.

What will the next ten years produce?

In 1914 the assessed value of Atlanta real estate was $14,332,000.00.

Increase, 170 per cent.

The total city assessment for 1914 was $12,723,477.

Ponce de Leon avenue is now built up solid to the county line, and there are many handsome homes in county line.

Every section in the extended city limits has shown the same wonderful development.

The next extension of the city limits will take in Kirkwood, Oakhurst, Decatur, East Point and Buckhead.

Prosperity vs. Croaker

Ten years ago the world did not believe the Panama canal would ever be built. Today it is a finished product. Its opening means that the tide of trade will change in the United States and that the South and her Southern ports will enter upon an era of untold prosperity.

Ten years ago the farmers of the South could not get money to properly improve their farms at any price. Today President Wilson has proven himself the greatest real estate agent the world has ever known, and is forcing the water out of the "boasted" listed stocks in the gambling houses of the United States, and is removing the embargo laid on America's greatest producer—the farmer, and allowing him to use his only security as an asset for National Bank loans.

The world now realizes that mortgages secured by productive farm lands are the safest and best securities obtainable, and from this day forward they will be the most popular securities for all classes of trust funds, because man's mismanagement cannot affect them and no water has to be squeezed out of them.

Ten years ago there were only a few automobile garages in Atlanta. Today every automobile manufacturer either has a salesroom here, or will soon have one, and will be forced to locate a branch of his factory here to save freight rates.

Only a few years ago all the cotton factories of the country were located in the East. Within a few years they will all be located in the cotton fields for the same reason.

The same reasons that force the automobile and cotton factories to come South will force all the large manufacturing to locate branch factories here.

Ten years ago there was not a good road in Georgia outside of the counties in which her largest cities were located, and the average price of Georgia farm lands was $10 to $15 per acre. Today every county in Georgia is planning a system of good roads, and farm lands are worth from $25.00 to $100 per acre, and will double within the next five years.

Ten years ago the average yield of cotton per acre was one-quarter to one-half bale per acre. Today intensive farming produces from one to five bales per acre.

Ten years ago Georgia's average corn crop yield was 15 to 20 bushels per acre. Today boys under 20 years of age are making from 100 to 200 bushels per acre.

Georgia's agricultural crop for 1913 was $458,000,000 and her manufactured products were valued at $300,000,000, making a total production of nearly one billion dollars.

Figure for yourself the thousands of other things that show Atlanta and the South's wonderful growth within the last ten years that guarantees the wonderful future growth of this wonderful development.

SPACE IS GRANTED TO SCHUMANN-HEINK

Divorced Husband Said He Had as Much Chance as Celluloid Dog in Hades.

Chicago, June 9.—Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink was today granted a divorce from her husband, William H. Schumann, Jr., whose earlier appeal to Mrs. Catherine Dean, of New York, was the sensation of the suit.

The victory for the famous contralto, who was when Superior Judge Sullivan instructed the jury to return a verdict in favor of the complainant.

The divorce hearing was marked principally by the emotional outbursts written by Hippo to Mrs. Catherine Dean, of New York, who had written to contradict the authenticity of the letters credited to Hippo and the evil monolith of the defense failed to show moral obliquity on the part of the opera singer.

Mrs. Schumann-Heink showed her joy at the verdict.

"I had about as much chance as a celluloid dog chasing an asbestos cat through Gehenna," said Hippo.

MEXICAN VETERANS MEET IN ANNUAL REUNION

Chillicothe, Ohio, June 9.—While but a mere handful of the men who fought in the war with Mexico, 1846-1847, responded to the call of the commander of the National Mexican Veterans, to meet in annual reunion here today, the war spirit was dominant with those who were present.

Captain John A. Fisher, of Chillicothe, despite his more than 80 years, welcomed the less than a dozen survivors who were guests of Chillicothe for the two days' celebration. He is president of the National Mexican Veterans Association.

Captain Frank A. Hardy, aged 75, of Fulton, Ohio, presiding at the reunion, said that he had no regrets in attending the reunion of Mexican veterans in this year.

It seems that the most of the four-fifths of the veterans in Mexico in 1846-1847 and I have no faith that the generation at Niagara Falls or Niagara power on earth will ever be able to make a civil or industrial people out of the present race of Mexican outcasts.

A camp fire for the veterans was well lighted. The veterans of the Vistas, Palo Alto, Monterey, Cerro Gordo and other incidents were detailed by the veterans.

TEACHERS WIN A POINT IN LABOR UNION FIGHT

Cleveland, June 9.—Public school teachers won a point today in their fight to form a labor union. The union point court granted an injunction forbidding the board of education from providing that no teacher shall be employed who is not a member of the union.

The board also recognizes and encourages labor organizations," said the court, and the board of education is required to provide that future contracts shall be entered into with teachers and persons affiliated with labor unions."

NO OBJECTION MADE TO EMORY COLLEGE

Trustees of Emory College Indignant Over Report of Lack of Harmony.

Indignation was expressed by trustees of Emory college yesterday over the published report that objection had been made during their recent meeting to the appointment of a trustee, the well-known Atlanta attorney, on the ground that Mr. Connally was a Democrat. It was published that dissension had been created in the ranks over the alleged disqualification of trustees to set a precedent of keeping in the fold a member of any denomination other than a Methodist, with which sect the college is affiliated.

It is stated by Emory officials that the report is not only false, but is absolutely unfounded. An investigation has been started as to its origin. A. Palmer, president of the board, and G. Candler, Dr. Stewart Roberts, J. A. McCall, Dr. J. W. McCall, Dr. Dickey and Mr. Connally, returned to Atlanta from their trip to New York. The report is an unmitigated falsehood. The trustees of the college are not a Methodist church, and they are not a Methodist church. The meeting was as tranquil as a summer day. TROOPS AND STRIKERS CLASHING IN ITALY

Many Persons Injured in Rome and Other Cities—Strike Gains in Intensity.

Rome, June 9.—The general strike proclaimed yesterday as a protest against the government's action in the government in connection with the workmen was followed by the killing of another striker at Florence today.

The government views the movement with anxiety, as it is believed to be supported not only by the socialists, but by the radical party. The premier was subjected to strong criticism in the chamber for prohibiting anti-militarist meetings June 7. He answered that there had been no trouble except the loss of life. He said the strikers were fired into the ranks and were dispersed.

At Venice several clashes occurred between strikers and police. At Turin, where the strike was most intense, the strikers were fired into the ranks and were dispersed.
